

Author Instructions for IMS2009

These instructions are intended to guide you through the initial Summary Paper Submission process, as well as the Final Paper submission process, for the 2009 International Microwave Symposium (IMS 2009). Please read them very carefully!

These instructions apply only to IMS 2009 authors. The 2009 International Microwave Symposium and the 2009 RFIC Symposium will be using different paper submission procedures and will have different submission deadlines for 2009.

Radio Frequency Integrated Circuits, Monolithic Microwave Integrated Circuits (MMICs) and other semiconductor devices and their technologies remain areas of interest in which IMS 2009 is actively soliciting and encouraging technical submissions. IMS 2009 authors have 31 technical areas and several focus session areas from which to select, over a dozen of which are applicable to RF, microwave, or millimeter-wave ICs and their technology. Check out the IMS2009 Call for Papers for the names and additional information for the 31 IMS 2009 technical areas. Authors of IC-related papers can also consult the RFIC Symposium web site for further information. If you are unsure as to whether your paper is best suited to the 2009 International Microwave Symposium or the 2009 RFIC Symposium, please review both web sites.

1. Initial Summary Paper

The IMS procedure and timeline are as follows: Prospective authors must electronically submit their initial Summary paper in PDF format by 8 December 2008. Authors can use either the provided IEEE double-column format indicated in the MS Word Template, or a single-column format of your own choosing. (The two-column template is optional for the Summary submission but will be required for the Final submission). There is no need to submit a copyright form. Copyrights are not needed for the initial submission. There is no page limit for the Summary submission. Note that there is a 1-Megabyte limit on the PDF file to be uploaded to the web site. Please don't ask for exceptions to these limits!

Authors are required to convert their own papers to PDF format. Convert your submission into PDF using your own conversion software, or, for your convenience, you may use the IEEE PDF eXpress site. IEEE PDF eXpress is a free service to IEEE conferences, allowing their authors to make IEEE Xplore-compatible PDFs (Conversion function) or to check PDFs that authors have made themselves for IEEE Xplore compatibility (PDF Check function). The Summary paper does not need to be IEEE Xplore compatible, but all IMS Final papers must be IEEE Xplore compatible pdfs.

Sometimes authors may encounter difficulties with photographic images and the 1 Megabyte size limit. This usually occurs when pictures are taken using a high-resolution digital camera, and the image is pasted directly into the manuscript. Use compression on photos and figures to reduce the size, and work this out well in advance of the deadline! Some helpful information is listed in SECTION III of the MS Word Template.

How to Submit your Summary Paper:

All papers must be submitted in PDF format to the IMS 2009 Paper Submission Site (NOTE: site opens for submissions starting Oct 8, 2008).

The submission process consists of nine different “steps”. These steps are:

1. Convert paper to PDF form optionally using the IEEE PDF eXpress site.
2. Initiate paper submission at the IMS 2009 Paper Submission Site.
3. Generate registration key
4. Input title, abstract, # of authors, and # of affiliations
5. Input IMS2009 specific options, file format, and author responsibilities
6. Input Author List
7. Input Author’s affiliations and addresses
8. Upload manuscript PDF file
9. Confirm registration and file transfer

Instructions and general information are located on each screen. Please read those directions and this document prior to requesting support.

NOTE: If you are submitting more than one paper, you will need to repeat all steps for each new paper.

Step-by-Step Instructions for the initial Summary Paper Submission:

Step 1a. Convert your paper to PDF format using either your own PDF software, or the IEEE PDF eXpress web site. Access IEEE PDF eXpress through the IMS 2009 Author Homepage (<http://www.ims2009.org/papersubmissions>) by clicking on the IEEE PDF eXpress site link. You should now see the “Login” screen.

- a. First-time users – (1). Click “New Users - Click Here”. (2) Enter ims09x for the Conference ID, your email address, and choose a new password. Continue to enter information as prompted. (3) You will receive online and email confirmation of successful account setup.
- b. Previous PDF eXpress users, but using it the first time for IMS 2009: - (1) Enter ims09x for the Conference ID, your email address, and enter the password you used for your old account. (2) When you click “Login”, you’ll receive an error saying you need to set up an account. Simply click “Continue”. By entering your previously used email address and password combination, you will enable your old account for access to this new conference. (3) Check that the contact information is still valid, and click “Submit”. (4) You will receive online and email confirmation of successful account setup.
- c. Returning users - Enter ims09x for the Conference ID, your email address and password.

Step 1b. To convert your manuscript to a PDF file using IEEE PDF express click “Create New Title”. You will need to do this for each conference paper to be submitted.

Step 1c. Enter identifying text for the paper (title is recommended but not required). Click “Submit Source Files for Conversion”. You can alternatively check if an existing PDF file is already Xplore compatible by clicking “Submit PDF for Checking”.

Step 1d. Indicate platform, source file type (if applicable), click Browse and navigate to file, and click “Upload File”. You will receive online and email confirmation of successful upload

Step 1e. You will receive an email with your Checked PDF or IEEE PDF eXpress-converted PDF attached. If you submitted a PDF for Checking, the email will show if your file passed or failed.

Option 1 Resubmit your source file with corrections (Try again, then Submit Source Files for Conversion)

Option 2 “Request a Manual Conversion” through your account

Select your preference for presentation: Full-length (20-minutes), Short-length (10-minutes), or Interactive Forum. See the IMS2009 Call for Papers for details about these styles of presentation. You should also refer to Section 4(a) of this document for greater detail on the regular (full & short) presentations. Please refer to Section 4(b) of this document for details on Interactive Forum presentations. If you are a full-time student and wish to enter your paper in the student paper competition, select the ‘yes’ radio button beside “Enter IMS2009 Student Contest” Student papers contest submissions typically specify only two authors: the student, and the student’s academic advisor. Detailed information on student paper guidelines and eligibility can be found at the IMS2009 Author Homepage. Next, choose the three best technical categories for your paper. See the IMS2009 Call for Papers for further details. Your abstract should contain information that justifies the technical categories you have chosen. A proper choice on your part helps to minimize the paper sorting process that may occur across the various categories.

You should now review the “Statement Of Clearance Approval”. Please read the document carefully, as summary papers will be distributed to a panel of experts for peer review. The membership of these peer review panels is international. If you agree and can comply with the

At the bottom of the page you should see:

Thank you. Your submission is complete.
You may now close this window, exit this web site, or quit your browser.

The submission process should be self-explanatory. However, if after reading this documentation and the online help screens you are still having problems, support is available via e-mail at IMS2009-admin@mtt-tpms.org. Please be sure to read the available documentation before requesting help by email. #### Instructions for Updating a Paper Submission:

Should you wish to update your submission in the future, you will need to return to the submission start page and select “Update a Previous Submission” from the dropdown list and then press the Continue button. You will need to enter your registration key in order to identify your submission.

In case you have lost your key, please refer to the confirmation email received when the paper was initially submitted. It is not possible to make changes to your submission without this key.

Your registration key will not change after updating your submission so please retain your existing key.

The Update feature can be used as follows:

- 1) To officially modify your registration information and/or upload a revised file by completing the entire submission process and entering the changes in the database. For your convenience, the information you entered previously will be preloaded into the web form fields. An update only becomes official when you see the “Confirmation of your Registration and File Transfer” screen. As part of the process, you will need to upload your manuscript PDF file again, even if it has not changed. An e-mail confirming the successful registration of your changes will be sent to you automatically.
- 2) To unofficially edit your registration information without recording it in the database. This feature is provided for your convenience, as you may exit the process whenever you wish and begin again later without losing your intermediate work. Remember, however, that these changes are unofficial (not in the database) until you complete the entire process of updating your submission (including the upload of your PDF manuscript file). An update only becomes official when you see the “Confirmation of your Registration and File Transfer” screen and receive an e-mail confirming the successful registration of your changes.

Instructions for Withdrawing a Paper Submission:

Should you wish to withdraw your submission, you will need to return to the submission start page and select “Withdraw a Previous Submission” from the dropdown list and then press the Continue button. You will need to enter your registration key in order to identify your submission. In case you have lost your key, please refer to the confirmation email received when the paper was initially submitted. It is not possible to withdraw your submission without this key.

A withdrawal only becomes official when you see the “Withdrawal of your Submission” screen. You may wish to print this page for your records. An e-mail confirming the successful withdrawal of your submission will be sent to you automatically. At the bottom of the page you should see:

Your withdrawal is complete. You may now close this window, exit this web site, or quit your browser.

Please note that only under extraordinary circumstances is it considered acceptable to withdraw a paper that has been accepted for presentation. In the past, some authors have withdrawn their paper after acceptance without the permission of the Technical Program Committee Chair. This creates logistical problems because the paper title and abstract may have already been included in published documents and its omission leaves a hole in the session presentation schedule.

2. Paper Judging & Selection

All summary papers will be ranked and selected by the Technical Program Committee (TPC) during the December 2008 – January 2009 time frame, and all prospective authors will be notified as to whether their paper was accepted or rejected for publication. Historically, the acceptance rate has been close to 50%. Notification will occur after 18 January 2009. Please do not call us to find out the status of your submission. We will exercise due diligence and notify you promptly of the outcome, after 18 January 2009.

3. Final Manuscript Submissions

All authors who are accepted for publication must submit the Final Version of their paper no later than 20 March 2009. You must resubmit your paper, even if no changes were made to your initial submission! The final paper must be prepared in a two-column format and in compliance with the guidelines listed in the MS Word Template. Your Final paper must be converted into IEEE Xplore compatible PDF using the IEEE PDF eXpress site. There is a 4-page and a 1 Megabyte file size limit on the Final submission. Complete instructions for submitting your final manuscript will be provided after 31 January 2009.

The final paper will appear in the Symposium Digest and on the CD-ROM exactly as submitted. (There are no page charges.) Copyright forms are required at this stage of the submission process. Copyright forms will be submitted electronically. During the submission of your Final manuscript, you will be automatically taken to the IEEE electronic copyright form (eCF) web site. Your Final manuscript submission will not be complete without the electronic copyright submission. The copyright process must be completed by the 20 March 2009 deadline.

4(a). Paper Presentations at the Symposium

Authors who are selected for the short 10-minute, full 20-minute, and Focus Session talks at the symposium should do two things. First, read the witty and entertaining article by J. F. White on how to give a good presentation, even if you are an “old pro” at giving talks. This is located on the Author Information web page. Second, use the Power Point Template, also located on the Author Information web page, to prepare your slides. Be sure to bring a copy of your presentation on CD-ROM and another copy on a USB drive as backup. Do not bring transparencies. Overhead projectors will not be available. Do not bring 35mm slides. Plan ahead, practice your presentation, and adhere strictly to the time constraints given in the Power Point Template. Note that 20-minute talks typically run 17 minutes with 3 minutes for questions, while 10-minute talks are usually 8 minutes with 2 minutes for questions. As part of the instructions for preparing good slides, save the power point template to your computer, and then open it. Choose View --> Notes Page to see additional information concerning each slide.

4(b). Guidelines for Interactive Forum Presentations

Some authors prefer to participate in an Interactive Forum rather than the more formal 10 minute or 20 minute oral presentations at the Symposium. The Interactive Forum provides an opportunity for the presenter to engage in direct discussions with small groups of interested viewers. Be prepared to use your time in the Interactive Forum to explain your work and to answer specific questions. Software and/or hardware demonstrations are welcomed and encouraged. The Interactive Forum papers are organized by topics so that papers on similar topics will be grouped together. If you are assigned to participate in an Interactive Forum, here are some guidelines to guide you in your preparation:

Poster Space:

Plan on using an area that consists of two “push-pin bulletin boards” (poster boards), each 1.2 x 2.4 meters (4 x 8 ft). The poster boards and push-pins will be provided to attach your material onto the poster boards. Provide an Introduction or Outline and a Summary or Conclusion. Use bullet charts, figures, tables, equations, and photographs as applicable to highlight the important technical content of your paper. Simply posting the pages of the written version of your paper is a very poor practice for the Interactive Forum. The title of your poster should appear in block letters that are at least 10 cm (4 in) high. Try to make the majority of the lettering at least 5 cm high, and please be considerate to those viewers who are standing at a distance, by making the majority of the material easily legible from a distance of 2 meters. Graphs and charts should be at least 25 x 30 cm (8.5 x 11 in) or larger. The use of color graphics and headline-style phrases in bullet charts, will allow the audience to quickly see the theme of your topic and grasp your intended message. It is a good idea to sequentially number your posted material. This will indicate to the viewer a logical progression through your presentation.

If applicable, the use of demonstration hardware and/or software, and audio-visual presentations will make your presentation more interesting to a wider viewing audience. Arrive early for the Interactive Forum so that you have ample time to meet the Interactive Forum Chairpersons, find your assigned location, and arrange your materials on the poster boards provided. Your presentation material must be available for viewing and you must be available for discussion during the entire session. If you wish to step away from your poster board, please return as soon as possible. Your presentation area will be clustered with other presentations having a similar topic, so an interested viewer is likely to appear at any time. The material should be removed promptly at the conclusion of the session. It is very helpful to have paper copies of your written submission to the Symposium Digest available for visitors to take with them. Presenters often provide their business cards and solicit the cards of their visitors so they may correspond in the future.

We hope that you find the structure and layout of the author submission process easy to use and informative. We'll see you in Boston for IMS 2009!

Best Regards,

IMS 2009 Electronic Paper Management Team
